Trust your own intuition

Trust your inner guidance, it knows best. You don't need to explain yourself or justify your feelings to anyone, because you are the one who knows what your heart knows. Most of us were not taught what this sense is, but we all know that "gut" feeling. Avoid going in the things that just don't feel right. You just need to believe in your own soul, your inner heart, it will tell you the right thing.

Go with your own guts, it is the voice of your soul that tells you what is right and wrong for you, but too often we became distracted by our own fear, doubts and hopes and we refuse to listen.

You don't need to explain yourself to people, or trust people for your own decision, even when it feels like a hard decision, even when ignoring this would be easier, don't ignore the beautiful part of yourself, trust the vibes you get. You, yourself can decide your good & bad listen to the voice of your soul not what people say or think. Your time is limited, don't waste it in being trapped in people's thoughts, deep down you already know the truth.

Trust your intuition. Think for yourself. Another's mind isn't walking your journey, YOU ARE.
