TO MYSELF, WITH LOVE

Please wait for me
There, over the top of moon
Because I'm counting for you
So, please always look up...
And if you don't wait
I'll go just faster
And meet you half way
As you try to look down...
And if you give up
I'll be your shoulder
So go ahead and scream
And let the tears fall...
And if you don't trust me
I'll give you my soul
And tell you 'I believe you'
And it can be our stepping tool...
And if you think you are alone
I'll show you, I care
And that, I'll always be here
And I can be your wings...
And if you don't want me
I can be your unused shoulder And you can always count on me So that you never look down...
And if you really look up I'll be smiling

LEGAL NEWS

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS AMENDMENT BILL, 2022

- The Bill amends the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949, the Cost and Works Accountants Act, 1959, and the company Secretaries Act, 1980.
- It changes the disciplinary mechanism under the three Acts and specifies timelines for disciplinary proceedings. It also provides more external representation on the Board of Discipline and Disciplinary Committee. The Bill creates a Coordination Committee headed by the Secretary of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs. The Committee will have representation from the three Institutes formed under the Acts.
- The Secretary to each Council will be designated as chief executive with the President as the head of the Council. The President will be responsible for ensuring implementation of decisions of the Council.
- Firms must now register with the Institutes. The Councils must maintain a register of firms containing details including pendency of any actionable complaint or imposition of penalty.
- The Bill increases certain fines under the three Acts. If a partner or owner of a firm is repeatedly found guilty of misconduct during last five years, disciplinary action can be taken against the firm.

LEGAL MAXIM

1. Actori incumbit onus probandi – the burden of proof lies on the plaintiff

The cardinal principle of law of evidence is that "Actori incumbit onus probandi" – The burden of proof rests upon the plaintiff – Indra Raja & Ors. Vs John Yesurethinam, MANU/TN/4369/2011.

2. Affirmatis est probare – he who affirms must prove and Affirmanti non neganti incumbit Probatio – the burden of proof lies upon him who asserts and not upon him who denies.

Madras High Court followed the above 2 maxims for arriving at its conclusion that it is the bounden duty of the plaintiff to prove his case. The burden of proof is ambulatory. It reiterated the law on the point that the initial burden of proof is only on the plaintiff, who should enter into the box and prove his title positively – Pappannan & Ors. Vs Kolandasamy, MANU/TN/1886/2012: 2012 (7) Mad LJ 693

THE She-Box

The Ministry of Women & Child Development has launched Sexual Harassment electronic Box (She-Box). It is an effort to provide a single window access to every woman, irrespective of her work status, whether working in organized or unorganized, private or public sector, to facilitate the registration of complaint related to sexual harassment. Any woman facing sexual harassment at the workplace can register their complaint through this portal. Once a complaint is submitted to the 'She-Box', it will be directly sent to the concerned authority having jurisdiction to take action into the matter.

The Resources Section of the She-Box contains detailed information on the issue of sexual harassment of women at workplace.It contains the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 along with Rulesframed there under both in Hindi and English language. The repository also features a Handbook which provides information about the SH Act in an easy-to-use practical manner along with a training module to build capacity of government officials around the provisions of the SH Act. This module could be customized by the private organizations as per their extant service rules. Further, for government officials the repository contains all the advisories/OM/guidelines issues by Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT). All these documents could be viewed online or downloaded free of cost. The repository also contains videos on the issue which could be utilized for building awareness around the SHE Act.
