75 YEARS OF INDEPENDENCE!

On this occasion of 75th Independence Day, let us understand the poem written when Britishers ruled over our motherland. This poem was written by Sir Rabindranath Tagore-a great nationalist and visionary, who wanted India to awaken to a bright dawn of freedom; the freedom from slavery and our own metal chains. The original poem was published in 1910 and was included in the 1910 collection "Gitanjali" in Tagore's own translation, and in 1912 its English edition. "Where the mind is without fear..." is the 35th poem of "Gitanjali", and one of Tagore's most anthologized poems.

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

*Where the mind is without fear
and the head is held high Where knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up into fragments by narrow domestic walls;
Where words come out from the depths of truth;
Where tireless striving
Stretches its arms towards perfection;
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit;
Where the mind is led forward
by thee into ever widening Thought and action into that heaven of freedom, my father,
Let my country awake.*

Stay Safe, Stay United

Happy Independence Day

Legal Consequences of Underage Driving

As per Section 4 of the Motor Vehicle Act, 1988, no person below 18 years of age shall drive motor vehicles in any public place. Also, a person, after attaining 16 years of age, can drive a motorcycle with engine capacity not exceeding 50cc only after attaining a learner's license.

Therefore, if your child is below 18 years of age and is caught driving a motor vehicle without any learner's license, in that case, you will be penalised under Section 199A of the Motor Vehicle Act, 1988, the guardian will be penalised with a maximum of three years of imprisonment and a fine of Rs.25,000/-.

The vehicle registration for the commission of offence will be cancelled for 12 months. And the child who committed the offence will be eligible for a learner's license or driving license only after attaining the age of twenty-five years.

Note: The child's guardian will not be penalised if the offence was committed without his knowledge or he exercised all due diligence required to prevent the commission of the offence. The vehicle owner who permitted the juvenile for driving their motor vehicle will also be punished with imprisonment for a maximum of 3 months or Rs. 5000/- fine or both.

Due to an increase in underage driving offenders, the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act, 2019 was enforced, making rules more stringent and increasing imprisonment to three years for the guardian of juveniles committing offences under the Act.

Also, along with a valid Driving License, the driver needs to have the vehicle's insurance papers, Registration Certificate and Pollution under Control Certificate to drive on Indian roads.
