Friendly Basketball Matches

Date: 24th Jan 2020

DOCID: DOC202001240002

Venue: Basketball Court, RNBGU

Teams: RNB Global University & Sadul Club Academy of Basketball (Boys & Girls)

Bonhomie between two teams is always fun to watch. On 10th Jan 2020, a friendly match of basketball was conducted at RNBGU Basketball Court for both (Boys & Girls). Matches were played between Sadul Club Academy of Basketball and RNB basketball teams. The friendly rivalry started with a variety of challenges between the Sadul club and RNB team, both teams played particularly well. They played an excellent match where they showed sportsmanship, passion, energy, and excitement.

It was much awaited by all the participants. Girls' team of RNBGU won the match by 18:15 as the girls stepped onto the court to set it ablaze with speed, endurance, magical footwork, dribble and much to the audience-excitement, a nail-biting finish. Girls emerged triumphant after winning the friendly match. However, the boy's team was not that lucky with their shots leaving the Sadul Club team won the game by 41:16. The game was exhilarating and everybody thoroughly enjoyed the spirit of true sportsmanship. Students were cheering since it is exciting to watch friends play. The court was noisy but fantastic. The atmosphere was electric with the cheers of the students and the enthusiasm of the participants.

At the end there were no looser or winner as everyone enjoyed the game.

Lecture on Essentialism & Fungibility – Mr. Pankaj Sardá, USA

Lecture on Essentialism & Fungibility -
Mr. Pankaj Sardá, Capital One, USA

Feb 21, 2017

A guest lecture titled "Essentialism and Fungibility" was conducted on 21st February at the RNB Global University for the students of BBA and MBA. In the beginning by Ms. Rhythm Jain Asst Prof at RNB Global University introduced Mr. Pankaj Sardá to the audience.

This was followed by an interaction of Mr. Sardá with the students to know about their academic interests and career plans. He then began with the elaboration of the company Capital One. He briefed the students about his academic qualifications and background along with his professional experience of last fifteen years highlighting the practical experiences he acquired as he moved up the career ladder. He explained the concepts of Essentialism and Fungibility to the students quoting examples from his experience. Focusing further on essentialism and fungibility, Mr. Sardá discussed about the essential requirements for being an entrepreneur or a business professional and the flexibility required in performing a job. He quoted an example of Amazon which is the middle man for businesses and customers and what is the process for the delivery system as Amazon performs the operations as well. Heading towards the end of lecture he had an interactive session with the students for about 10 minutes where the discussion was open for the students to ask the queries and problem faced in their career path.

He also briefed about the importance of identifying the essentials and how you have to be flexible with the current dynamic environment these days. In this context he briefed students about various tech giants like facebook, Netflix, twitter, google etc and explained how Netflix came into existence; how the owners of the Netflix identified the problem from the various other movie/serials concerned sites like blockbuster. Students were so interactive throughout the session and took a keen interest in knowing the nitty gritty of entrepreneurship. The students were eager to know about how to make a beginning for a "Start up", as some of them are willing to become entrepreneurs. They also wanted to know how to achieve the heights and become big business tycoons like Mukesh Ambani. The students found the session to be very knowledgeable, inspiring and interactive which helped them to gain practical insights not only into the functioning of established corporates but also into the essentials of becoming big entrepreneurs.
