Introduction

RNBian's had a chance to interact with National School of Drama alumnus, celebrated movie and theatre actor, Mr. Ashok Banthia when he visited the campus.

During his interaction with students he said "I absolutely love theatre. I have been doing theatre for several years now. Films, on the other hand, are my bread and butter, since theatre isn't enough to support a family. To me personally, theatre is always special because it is right there in the moment. When questioned about his views on commercial cinema, he replied that he don't believe in art or commercial cinema. To him, good cinema is good cinema. His preference is any kind of cinema that has artistic entertainment. Such beautiful interaction really helps the students to get the hands-on experience to meet such a renowned celebrity and theatre artist and learn real life lessons from them.

Group Photograph of the Students with the Guest Speaker

Speaker TM Lalani told that this time the Bikaner Theater Festival has been grand and entertaining. This time this festival was dedicated to Dr. Nand Kishor Acharya, a renowned name, famous for his varied forms of theatre plays.

During All 5 Days the BTF 4 celebrity visited our University. Detail are following

1. Ms. Sanjana Kapoor : Co-founder & Director. Sanjna spearheads the Arts at Play for Schools programme, loves the sheer energy and excitement of the arts and is brilliant at curating this for eager audiences. She instigated the creation of the India Theatre Forum (ITF) because she was feeling lonely, and is currently part of the core team as well as a core team member and facilitator for SMART - Strategic Management in the Art of Theatre. Many of you will remember her for building Prithvi Theatre into a warm, inviting cultural hub, some of you will remember her for her earnest Amul India Show questioning, and some of you apparently loved her in Hero Hiralal - a confession which never fails to embarrass her. She believes in multi-tasking, and will one day possibly achieve being in multiple places at once - so that she can always be with theatre and always be with her son at one and the same time. When you don't find her messing about with the arts, you'll probably find her in the jungles of Africa or scuba-diving in some beautiful ocean somewhere, talking to the manta-rays.

2. Ashok Banthia - Famous by the name Ashok Banthia is a Hindi film actor as well as director. Ashok was born in Udaipur in a traditional business family. In the year 1932, after earning a diploma in theatre and dramatics from Punjab University, Chandigarh, Ashok went to the National School of Drama in New Delhi followed by a course in the direction at the National Institute of Dramatic Arts (NIDA), in Sydney.

3. Michel Lestrehan - Demonstration of Kathakali He is Experiences with contemporary choreographers in Paris from 1977 (Carolyn Carlson, Karine Saporta, Yano Hideyuki) Michel Lestrehan entered into the Indian dance in 1984 with Kathak in Ahmedabad with Kumudini Lakhia and Arjun Mishra. After one year, he went to Kerala where he was fascinated by the Kathakali dance-theater. He started to study in Kerala Kalamandalam with great master Vazhenkada Vijayan. He returned to Kerala in 1987 for six years to continue the practice of Kathakali in Kalamandalam, and then with Sadanam Krishnankutty. All these years were under the support of Indo-French Cultural Exchange scholarships. Beside Kathakali, Michel practiced also Kalaripayatt martial art in P.K.B. Kalari Sangham with Balan Gurukkal. In India, Michel was participating in Kalamandalam's troupe for programs, and performed several major roles of Kathakali in India and Europe. He organizes also regular tours with great Kathakali artists. His research is based on his early experiences with Western contemporary dance and the inspiration from Indian techniques. He worked on several choreographic pieces, mainly with Indian dancers and musicians.

4. Bishoy Aniyani - Bamboo & Saxophone Performance - Famous Music composer, who had also worked at Mathalam: A Ethnic Music Band amazed the audience with his classical flute and saxophone performance.

Details working of students.

1. Plan the schedule- BTF is about creating a ~~schedule~~ ~~plan~~ towards achieving a specific organizational objective. When you are planning, you are identifying the tasks, which are required to achieve the desired goals, outlining how the tasks should be performed, and identifying when and by whom they must be performed. Such as

- When celebrity will arrive
- When the event/ Natak/Show will start
- When breaks will occur
- When meals or refreshments will be served
- When the event will end

2. Discipline of audience - Maintained Discipline during the plays at respective venues.

3. Organizing - You'd use the above plan and information about the resources you have or which you need, and arrange the resources to the right tasks. Work division, work assignment, Stage handling and assist the various artist teams.

Our university students as a volunteer partner and assigns the following responsibility.

1. Receiving the celebrity from station and airport & take care of them during whole festival.
2. Stage handling and assist the various artist teams.
3. Provide transportation and Logging & Boarding with different venue.
4. Maintained Discipline during the plays at respective venues.

Learning outcome

1. Develop applied skills beyond the classroom environment by testing them in a real-world cultural environment.
2. Develop discipline, organizational skills, confidence and problem-solving etiquette—all capacities that can be fruitfully applied to a wide range of professions including-Theatre acting.
3. Increase abilities in self-reflection, multicultural sensitivity, and the comparison of social values and ethical systems through interaction with other communities and cultures.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of theatre history in the context of world and cultural events.
5. Demonstrate the ability to think critically and analytically to evaluate theatre text, performance and production.
6. Integrate an understanding of diversity, multiculturalism, and identity in the process, practice and study of theatre.

Introduction

94.3 MY FM-A Dainik Bhaskar Group Radio Channel, conducted an activity 'TUJHE KYA' at RNB Global University, Bikaner. The activity was about the youngsters and students feeling complex or shy about their look, height, weight and so many other things at this tender age. This hits straight at the confidence level of such people. Through this campaign, they made a large progressive statement - "Stay the Way You Are". Selected student will be given a chance to perform to the next level. The young energetic students of RNB Global University interacted with the team of 94.3 MY FM during the event. Students from all the streams participated in the event. RJ Riya, Ex-student of RNBGU came to the campus along with other team members of 94.3 FM.

94.3 MY FM had an interactive section and also aired live from the University itself. It was a great experience for the students to have such platform in the campus itself and lease their hesitation and let their heart sing.

Dhanteras Celebration-2018

DOC201811050003

Date: 5th November, 2018
Venue- Foyer, Admin Block

Time: 09:30 AM onwards

Dhanteras was celebrated at RNB Global University with full energy and enthusiasm. The University was decorated with colourful diyas and traditional motifs of Rangoli were designed to welcome the Goddess Laxmi and Lord Kuber. The celebration began with Poojan of Lord Ganesh and Goddess Laxmi by Dignitaries, Registrar, Deans, Faculty Members and the students of the University.

Students were dressed up like Rama, Seeta, Raavan, Hanuman, etc for Raamleela Manchan in front of the large audience. Seeing students perform on stage, everyone was ecstatic. For the audience, it was a refreshing change from the usual Ramayana and everyone was laughing and rolling on the floor. Fun it got to be as they started their dialogue delivery on the stage. The most unforgettable and cute moment was to see a young Hanuman ji coming on the stage, trotting his way, totally in love with his poonch, The students did stutter, adding a hilarious touch of exclusivity to their Ramleela, but never did they let their enthusiasm fail them. The stuttering dialogue deliveries endeared them and the characters that they played a lot more. All in all, it was not only worth praising act, but also a different one with added cuteness to it.

Vice Chairman Mr. Vikram Bajaj and Mrs. Kanta Bajaj were the chief Guests of the function. Mr. Bajaj addressed the students and added to the festive mood by his warm and bright words explaining the holy series of festival. During his enlightening speech, he motivated the students to win the inner Raavan of life and make the occasion celebration in real séance.

A Report on RNBian's Promotes Cleanliness by Nukkad Natak on Gandhi Jayanti

Introduction

"Cleanliness Is Next to Godliness." - Mahatma Gandhi.

RNB Global University embarked on an extensive drive to educate and inspire residents of Bikaner to promote the cleanliness among the entire city, state and country. Students of Event Forum of RNB Global University, organized a series of Nukkad Natak to create social awareness in the different parts of Bikaner on 2nd October 2018 on the eve of Gandhi and Shastri Jayanti.

In a bid to enhance awareness about the importance of cleanliness, on daily life among the common people, RNBian's decided to use visual medium to draw everyone's attention. Elaborating on this, one of the organisers of this awareness endeavour, says, "We have organized many street plays today at different locations of the city of Bikaner. The idea is to strike a connect with the people through these plays and that's the reason why we have chosen some of the busiest streets in the city to stage these plays." The theatrical campaign begins at 5 PM and ends at 7PM. Each play highlighted different issues related to cleanliness. Students communicated the message that Clean and green makes perfect scene in the country and this is by which we can achieve the dream of mahatma Gandhi- Father of Nation.

These apart, students are also planning to reach to people and market places to create awareness for cleanliness and inculcate this in their habits.
