About the Lohri Celebration

Lohri was celebrated at RNB Global University with a lot of exuberance and fanfare. The mood on the campus was upbeat and the students were totally absorbed in the festive spirit of Lohri. The students actively immersed in the festive spirit. The celebration started with "Lohri Poojan." By worshipping 'Dhooni' and highlighting the importance of the festival of Lohri, which ushers in the cheerful spring season bidding adieu to the dull winter. On this celebration both students and teachers gathered at students' zone where a bonfire was lit. Folk songs were played to make the mood and soon everybody joined in the energetic rhythm! Groundnuts and sweets were also distributed among the students and teachers. Students danced around bonfires to enjoy the festival and offered their prayers for the prosperity of the nation. College campus was totally absorbed in the festive spirit.

Lohri is seen as a deep connection to the Punjabi culture. In Indian movies, whenever Punjabi culture is presented, Lohri remains a prime event for them.

As soon the Lohri festival nears, 'Lo aa gai Lohri ve... Banaa lo Jodi ve...', the signature song from the Movie "Veer Zara" moons our mind and we immediately get transported into the cheerful fantasies of bonfire, dance, music and fanfare!

Jana Natya Manch (Theatre Paly)-2019

Date: 29th July, 2019

Time: 11:00PM to 01:30AM

Venue: Seminar Hall.

Organized By: Dr. Vikas Sharma and Delhi Team
(RNB Global University)

The Theater Play "Jana Natya Manch" (from Anurag Kala Kendra and Junoon's Theatre) visited our University for the session on 29th July 2019.

About the Group: Jana Natya Manch

Jana Natya Manch, established in 1973 by a group of Delhi's young theatre radicals including Safdar Hashmi, is India's best-known political street theatre group. The group has to its credit over 100 street, proscenium, and other performances, totalling over 8,000 performances. Its productions have been written and/or directed by a number of leading theatre artistes, including Habib Tanvir, Safdar Hashmi, Govind Deshpande, Anuradha Kapur, M.K. Raina, Kavita Nagpal, Abhishek Majumdar, Sudhanva Deshpande and Brijesh. Janam has performed in over 250 villages, towns and cities all over India, as well as performed, lectured and offered workshops in Palestine, South Africa, the UK and USA. Janam has neither sought, nor accepted, funding from government, corporates, NGOs or political parties. It is funded by its audiences, and Janam members volunteer their time gratis

The Group will present two Play (Girgit and Machine) and conduct an illustrated talk on street theatre In the Seminar Hall.

Synopsis: Machine

This is Janam's first street play, first performed in October 1978. It's a stark riveting critique of capitalism with lyrical, stylized dialogues that depict the exploitation of industrial labour.

Machine was written by Safdar Hashmi and Rakesh Saksena, and was finalised on the floor, where everyone present contributed. The machine, created very simply by human figures, is the symbolic representation of capitalism. The worker, the capitalist and the security officer are all parts of the machine; they are complementary parts of a system founded upon the exploitation of one by the other; their co-existence, then, is unequal.

Synopsis: Girgit
