

Annual Report of Women Welfare Cell

Session: 2017-18

DOCID 201707010003

(Submitted by: Dr. Kumud Sarin, Convener Women Welfare Committee, RNB Global University)

Women's Welfare Cell's main goals are to actively advance women in society and eliminate gender inequality (WWC). RNB Global University through this unit ensures to address issues including sexual harassment, women's safety, and awareness of laws that affect women's welfare. They aid women in recognising their place in society as well. A women's welfare cell serves as a hub for student safety in any situation.

The Women's Welfare Cell (WWC) of RNB Global University works to address all issues related to discrimination against women and to help women develop greater self-assurance. Cell makes it a priority to spread awareness of legislation that protect women and to highlight the importance of social equality and gender inclusion. Cell's mission is to prevent sexual harassment of female students, professors, and staff, to enhance their general welfare, and to uphold a courteous, inclusive workplace for all.

In the year 2017, the committee is reconstituted and had two meetings, in these meetings the committee discussed the grievances if any in women welfare cell.

The previous committee members were Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener) & Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member).

4th Meeting Date: July 01, 2017

The meeting was attended by both the members of the committee i.e., Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener) & Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member) in room number 15.

The meeting was called to discuss if any grievance or complaint received to the Cell but the Convener informed that no complaint was reported to the Cell.

Another very important concern discussed by the members of the Cell that there is zero tolerance policy against any grievance or complaints if reported by any female staff or student to the Cell.

Convener reviewed the action taken report for the grievances in the previous meetings.

5th Meeting Date: January 06, 2018

The meeting was attended by all the members of the committee i.e., Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener), Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member), Mr. Sharad Vyas (Member) & Ms. Shweta Tawania (Member) in room number 15.

Minutes of previous meeting were discussed and it was conveyed to all the members of the Cell that there will be zero tolerance policy against any grievance or complaint reported to the cell.

Cell decided to organise workshops, seminars on health, etc., as these activities will ensure attention to concerns relating to women and also creating the awareness to the women centric issues.

Educating faculty and students about socially significant issues to give them a better perspective.

The main duty was to address any complaints of female staff members or students and ensure that they were promptly resolved, in addition to planning the events and ensuring that female students participated in all activities.

There are no complaints or issues among the female faculty, staff, or students at the university, the convener informed the members.
