

Annual Report of Women Welfare Cell

Session: 2018-19

DOCID 201807070003

(Submitted by: Dr. Kumud Sarin, Convener Women Welfare Committee, RNB Global University)

The major objectives of the Women's Welfare Cell are to actively advance women in society and to end gender inequality (WWC). Through this unit, RNB Global University provides programmes for women that address topics including sexual harassment, women's safety, and awareness of laws that impact women's welfare. They also support women in understanding their place in society. In any circumstance, a women's welfare cell acts as a focal point for student safety.

The Women's Welfare Cell (WWC) at RNB Global University address all the problems associated with prejudice against women and to assist ladies in becoming more self-assured. Cell ensures to raise awareness of laws protecting women and to emphasise the value of gender inclusivity and social equality. Cell is to protect female students, instructors, and staff from sexual harassment and to advance their overall wellbeing and to keep a respectful, welcoming workplace for everyone.

In the year 2018, the committee is reconstituted and had two meetings were organised, in these meetings focused on the grievances if any in the cell women welfare.

The previous committee members were Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener) & Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member).

5th Meeting Date: January 06, 2018

The meeting was attended by all the members of the committee i.e., Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener), Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member), Mr. Sharad Vyas (Member) & Ms. Shweta Tawania (Member) in room number 15.

Minutes of previous meeting were discussed and it was conveyed to all the members of the Cell that there will be zero tolerance policy against any grievance or complaint reported to the cell.

Cell decided to organise workshops, seminars on health, etc., as these activities will ensure attention to concerns relating to women and also creating the awareness to the women centric issues.

Educating faculty and students about socially significant issues to give them a better perspective.

The main duty was to address any complaints of female staff members or students and ensure that they were promptly resolved, in addition to planning the events and ensuring that female students participated in all activities.

There are no complaints or issues among the female faculty, staff, or students at the university, the convener informed the members.

6th Meeting Date: July 07, 2018

The meeting was attended by all the reconstituted members of the committee i.e., Dr. Kumud Sarin (Convener), Ms. Barnali Chatterjee (Member), Mr. Sharad Vyas (Member) & Ms. Shweta Tawania (Member) in room number 15.

International Women's Day was organised successfully and the guests were Ms. Tanu Shree Pareek, first woman Combat officer BSF, Dr. Meghna Sharma Director of Centre for women studies and Dr. Sushma Bissa member of the executive council of the National Adventure Foundation.

The meeting was called to discuss if any grievance or complaint received to the Cell but the Convener informed that no complaint was reported to the Cell.

Convener reviewed the action taken report for the grievances in the previous meetings.
