University's has website which serves as an information hub for the University, reflecting all of its operations, significant announcements, courses offered, etc. The University has engaged a different service provider/web designer for this reason. The administrative and instructional personnel will receive training so they can make significant website updates.

The university's ERP system was regularly updated throughout the 2016-2017 academic year to accommodate the growing student needs. The university's e-infrastructure was modernised to help academic operations like admissions, scheduling, attendance, curriculum design and delivery, exam evaluation, and result publication run smoothly. University has decided to implement the student attendance through ERP only and attendance should be stored in database for future reference.

The committee also reviewed the functioning of e-infrastructure of the university which includes the following;

1. Database, and other administrative aspects
2. Library database
3. Website
4. Projectors

Enough and unrestricted internet access is the most crucial component in any situation involving the adoption of e-governance. The primary method of connectivity at RNBGU is a LAN connection, which has a maximum capacity of more than 2500 systems. With the automation of the student admissions process, the university has achieved significant progress in the deployment of e-government in the areas of student admission and assistance.

The partial automation of EMS has been achieved in terms of examination. The appraisal of attendance, the valuation process for the end-of-semester exam, and the posting of results are all totally automated.

The development of an advanced profile for faculties is the extent of efforts made in the area of personal, pedagogical, and administrative support for teachers. There is still room for enhancement by adding an activity log, a broadcasting mechanism for notifications, etc.

The university subscribed the Facility of MS Outlook for admin staff and Gmail for Faculties and Students. University also implanted Full Subscription of MS Office for the teaching staff.

The university's assets (Computers and Software) were worth INR 1,23,22,686.25 as on July 2016 and University invested INR 38,99,787.54 during the year 2016 -17.

Implementations of the software using during academic year 2016-17:

ANNUAL E-GOVERNANCE REPORT

Session 2017-18

DOCID 201809050003

(Submitted by: Mr. Pradeep Yadav, Convener, E-Governance Committee, RNB Global University)

Dated: 5th September 2018

The Annual E-Governance Report provides a detailed analysis of the developments and maintenance in the IT division. This report's components include the installation and forecasts for the hardware and software.

On September 5, 2018, the E-governance Committee had its annual meeting. Due to a rise in faculty and student enrollment, the committee reviewed the challenges associated with the complete automation of university operations. The committee's main goals were to effectively facilitate the upkeep of university records and processing, preserve the openness of the university administration, and speed up information sharing.

To meet the expanding needs of the student, the university's ERP system was continually updated throughout the 2017-2018 academic year. The university's e-infrastructure was updated to support the efficient operation of academic procedures, such as the holding of courses, the automated preparation of question papers, the holding of exams, etc.

The institution uses e-governance in all aspects of operation, including teaching, admissions, the library, accounting, administration, and administration. For this reason, the university has a subscription to TCS-Ion's most comprehensive online cloud-based solution, and the institution ensures that the online cloud-based solution is regularly updated.

In the University system, all meeting records of the Academic Council (AC), Board of Studies (BoS), and Board of Management (BOM) sessions were kept secured during the 2017-18 academic year.

The university's e-infrastructure was modernized to facilitate efficient academic operations like admissions, attendance, curriculum design and delivery, exam evaluation, and result publication.

The committee also reviewed the functioning of e-infrastructure of the university which includes the following;

1. Database, and other administrative aspects
2. Library database

3. Website

4. Projectors

The most essential requirement in any situation involving the adoption of e-governance is adequate and unfettered internet connectivity. The university continued to update its hardware and software for the benefit of its students.

In terms of examination, EMS has reached full automation. During 2017-18, the university uploaded the attendance, the assessment for the end-of-semester exam, and the outcomes.

The university's assets (Computers and Software) were worth INR 1,62,22,473.79 as on July 2017 and University invested INR 5,33,163.00 during the year 2017 -18.

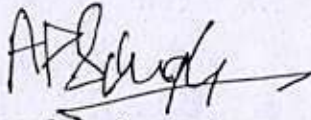

During the 2017-2018 academic year, the university upgraded its asset management system, CCTV monitoring software, and biometric attendance system.

The institution also set up a backup server and upgraded its desktop computers, CCTVs, network, and antivirus software.

IT Personnel

ANNUAL E-GOVERNANCE REPORT

Session 2018-19

DOCID 201908080005

(Submitted by: Mr. Kailash Pareek, Convener E-Governance Committee, RNB Global University)

Dated: 08th August 2019

The Annual E-Governance Report offers a thorough study of the advancements and upkeep in the IT department. The installation as well as software and hardware records are included in this report's components.

The E-governance Committee met for its annual meeting on August 08, 2019. An increase in teacher and student enrolment prompted the committee to analyze the difficulties that would come in a fully automated system in the university. The committee's main objectives were to efficiently facilitate the maintenance of university records and processing, maintain the administration's transparency, and expedite information sharing.

The university's ERP system was constantly updated throughout the 2018-2019 academic year to satisfy the students' expanding needs. To support the effective operation of academic procedures, such as the holding of courses, the automated preparation of question papers, the holding of exams, etc., the university's e-infrastructure was upgraded.

Every area of the institution's operations, including teaching, admissions, the library, accounting, administration, and administration, uses e-governance. This is why the university has a subscription to the most web - based cloud-based solution from TCS-Ion, and the university makes sure that the online cloud-based solution is updated frequently.

Throughout the 2018-19 academic year, the Academic Council (AC), Board of Studies (BoS), and Board of Management (BOM) meeting records were all maintained secure within the university system.

To support effective academic operations like admissions, attendance, curriculum design and delivery, exam evaluation, and result publication, the university's e-infrastructure was upgraded.

The committee also reviewed the functioning of e-infrastructure of the university which includes the following;

1. Database, and other administrative aspects
2. Library database

3. Website

4. Projectors

The availability of adequate and unrestricted internet access is the most important prerequisite in any situation where e-governance is being implemented. To help its pupils, the university kept upgrading its gear and software.

EMS has attained complete automation with regard to examination. The university uploaded attendance data, end-of-semester exam evaluation data, and results for 2018-19.

The university's assets (Computers and Software) were worth INR 1,67,55,636.79 as on July 2018 and University invested INR 3,21,953.00 during the year 2018 -19.

The institution updated its asset management software, CCTV surveillance software, and biometric attendance system throughout the 2018-19 academic year.

ANNUAL E-GOVERNANCE REPORT

Session 2019-20

DOCID 202008070002

(Submitted by: Mr. Kailash Pareek, Convener, E-Governance Committee, RNB Global University)

Dated: 07th August 2020

An in-depth analysis of the improvements and maintenance in the IT department may be found in the Annual E-Governance Report. The components of this report consist of installation, software, and hardware.

On August 07, 2020, the E-governance Committee met for its annual meeting. The group was inspired to examine the challenges that would arise in a university with a fully automated system by an increase in teacher and student enrollment. The committee's main goals were to maintain the administration's openness, encourage information sharing, and efficiently support the upkeep of university records and processing.

Throughout the 2019-2020 academic year, the university's ERP system was continuously updated to meet the evolving needs of the students. The university's e-infrastructure was enhanced to assist the efficient operation of academic procedures, such as the holding of courses, the automated preparation of question papers, the holding of exams, etc.

E-governance is used throughout the whole operation of the institution, including teaching, admissions, the library, accounting, administration, and administration. For this reason, the institution has a subscription of TCS-most Ion's popular web-based cloud-based solution, and it ensures that the online cloud-based solution is regularly updated.

The Academic Council (AC), Board of Studies (BoS), and Board of Management (BOM) meeting records were all kept secure within the university system during the 2019-20 academic year.

The university's e-infrastructure was enhanced to facilitate efficient academic activities like admissions, attendance, curriculum creation and delivery, exam evaluation, and result publication.

The committee also reviewed the functioning of e-infrastructure of the university which includes the following;

1. Database, and other administrative aspects
2. Library database
3. Website

4. Projectors

The most critical requirement in any situation where e-governance is being used is the availability of appropriate and unfettered internet connectivity. The university was constantly updating its hardware and software to benefit its students.

Regarding examination, EMS has acquired full automation. The university published attendance information, end-of-semester exam evaluation information, and 2019-20 results.

The university faced new challenges amide covid-19 pandemic and for coping up the problem university adopted mechanism of online class, online attendance, and online examination procedure for running academic activities.

The university also organized various training sessions for the teaching and non-teaching staff members for enabling them in using the online tools like- Google meets, and Google Class room.

The university's assets (Computers and Software) were worth INR 1,70,77,589.95 as on July 2019 and University invested INR 3,79,544.00 during the year 2019 -20.

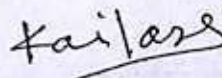

Throughout the 2019-20 academic year, the institution updated its biometric attendance system, CCTV surveillance software, and asset management software.

ANNUAL E-GOVERNANCE REPORT

Session 2020-21

DOCID 202109240003

(Submitted by: Mr. Kailash Pareek, Convener, E-Governance Committee, RNB Global University)

Dated: 24th September 2021

The Annual E-Governance Report contains a detailed review of the updates and upkeep in the IT department. Hardware, software, and installation make up the report's components.

The E-governance Committee held its annual meeting on September 24, 2021. An increase in teacher and student enrolment provided the group with the impetus to investigate the difficulties that would materialize at the university with a completely automated system. The committee's main objectives were to uphold administration transparency, promote information sharing, and effectively assist with maintaining university records and processes.

The whole functioning of the University, including admissions, the library, accounting, administration, uses e-governance. Because of this, the institution has a subscription of the web-based cloud-based solution from TCS- Ion, and it makes sure the online cloud-based solution is consistently updated.

To match the changing needs of the students throughout the 2020-2021 academic year, the university's ERP system was regularly upgraded. The university's e-infrastructure has been improved to aid in the smooth functioning of academic processes including the hosting of classes, the automated creation of test questions, etc.

During the academic year 2020-21, the university system maintained the records of the meeting minutes for the Academic Council (AC), Board of Studies (BoS), and Board of Management (BOM) electronically.

To make efficient academic tasks like admissions, attendance, curriculum development and delivery, exam evaluation, and result publication possible, the university's e-infrastructure was updated.

The committee also reviewed the functioning of e-infrastructure of the university including Database, other administrative aspects, Library database, Website, Projectors & Biometric records.

The availability of appropriate and unrestricted internet access is the most important prerequisite in any situation where e-governance is being implemented. For the sake of its students, the university regularly updated its hardware and software.

EMS now has complete automation for examination. The university released results for 2020-21, attendance data, and end-of-semester exam rating data.

The university's assets (Computers and Software) are worth INR 1,74,57,133.95 as on July 2020.

University is continuously increasing the number of desktops & Laptops for library and computer lab to smoothen all aspects of E-governance in university. In this direction university purchased more laptops for the admin staff also.

University maintained the speed of internet 100 MBPS uninterruptedly for the smooth operation of all activities.

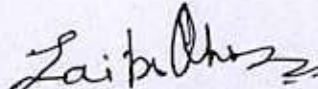

RNB global University is taking the services of MS-offices from the inception of university, for this purpose university & Microsoft corporation executed an agreement, which is being renewed continuously. University is paying the AMC to Microsoft corporation regularly.

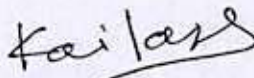

The institution updated its asset management software, CCTV surveillance software, and biometric attendance system throughout the academic year 2020-21.
