Course Name: Moot Court -Interviewing Techniques

Course Code: 16007700

Course Outline

Part 1- Internship Preparation

This part will require the preparation of students to be attached with practicing lawyers with a minimum of ten years standing at the Bar or with some corporate body or with the lawyer observing client dealings, drafting, conducting fact investigations, etc. (As per SIP document).

During the court visits, the students will be required to observe the following stages in cases:

Framing of charges / issues

1. Examination-in-Chief
2. Cross-examination
3. Final Arguments

In the lawyer's chamber they are required to do the following:

1. Read minimum of four case files to learn how files are prepared and maintained
2. Learn how to maintain records and accounts
3. Do legal research in at least two cases
4. Draft minimum of two documents in an ongoing case in the chamber
5. Observe client interviewing and counselling with the permission of the lawyer and clients in at least two cases

In court visits the students are required to observe the following stages and write reports of their observation in the diary:

1. Framing of charges

2. Examination-in-Chief

3. Cross-examination

4. Final arguments

The students are expected to maintain a diary of their court visits, work done during placement and their observations. In the diary, keep a log of the time spent each day including factual accounting of your experience of what you are doing, seeing and hearing. However, the diary should not be only descriptive of each day but should focus on what you learnt during the day.

- 1) What were you thinking and feeling about your experiences?
- 2) What is exciting or surprising?
- 3) What is bothering you?
- 4) What are your questions or insights about lawyering and judging?
- 5) What criticism or praise do you have for the legal system?
- 6) What else would you like to be taking place in your experience?

Please be careful that while writing your accounts you do not reveal any confidential information.

The diary should contain two parts:

- (a) the factual and analytical information about your internship; and
- (b) two legal documents drafted by you during internship.

The diary is an integral part of the course and you will be evaluated in terms of thoughtfulness and reflections about your learning experience. Be sure to write the journal in your own words even if you went with another class fellow or were in a group and observed the same things.

If two students are found to have copied each other's language, both the students will be given a zero for that work. This part will be evaluated separately for 30 marks.

Part -2- Discussion on decided cases

1. Discussion of latest 6 Judgments of the Supreme Court and the High Courts
2. Methods of making briefs of judicial decisions
3. Organization of 2 Seminars on current legal topics
4. Quiz Competition
5. Debate Competition.
6. Legal Essay Writing Exercises

Comprehensive Viva shall be conducted by a board of examiners constituted by a Committee comprising of all faculty members involved in teaching Law Students. Important recent cases and any legislative changes on the subjects taught during the semester shall be discussed.

This part will be evaluated separately for 40 marks.

Part -3- Mock Court Participation

The students would be required to conduct Moot Courts in two cases, one Civil and one Criminal during the course of the semester. The students will be divided in teams of lawyers and witnesses. Each student will be required to function as a lawyer and witness in the trials being simulated in the classes. Students' performance will be evaluated on the basis of equal marks being assigned for case analysis, written submissions, Examination-in-chief, Cross-examination, and final arguments. Participation in each moot court will be evaluated separately for 15 marks each. This part carries a total of 30 marks.
